LOWELL POLICE ARREST BOSTON MAN FOR ROBBING DUNKIN DONUTS

At 4:18am this morning, Lowell Police Officers responded to the Dunkin Donuts on Bridge St. in the Centralville section of the city for a robbery that had just occurred. According to the victims, both employees of Dunkin Donuts, a male subject who had been inside the store during the course of the night jumped up on the counter and grabbed the tip bucket that is kept underneath, out of sight of customers. As he climbed off the counter to run, the employee yelled that she was calling 911. The subject dropped the bucket and fled out of the building. Almost immediately following the suspect description broadcast, officers located an individual across the street at the CVS Pharmacy store. The subject was positively identified as the person who robbed the Dunkin Donuts and was placed under arrest for Unarmed Robbery. He is Sterling Brown age 30 of Boston. He was held at the Lowell Police Station and will be arraigned this morning in Lowell District Court.
